

SOP: SEO Bi-weekly meetings

Purpose:

The Bi-Weekly SEO meeting exists to reinforce trust, maintain project momentum, and keep the client feeling seen, heard, and informed — without turning the call into a data dump.

These sessions should feel consultative and forward-moving: “Here’s what’s happening, why it matters, and what’s next.”

Meeting Length: 30 minutes

Prep Time: ≤ 30 minutes

Responsible: SEO Account Manager

Informed: SEO Associate Director

Scheduling: Recurrent 3rd week of the month

Note: Try and never schedule meetings on Fridays to protect your working time

Meeting Prep:

During prep, you'll be creating the following:

1. A one-line KPI insight → Opens your pre-read email, and Google doc agenda and anchors the performance story.
2. A short Deliverables + Quick Wins table → Summarizes what happened, why it matters, and what's next.
3. A few Relationship & Alignment prompts → Guides your conversation and helps surface opportunities or risks.
4. A finalized pre-read email draft → Sent to the client 1 business day before the meeting; this serves as your outline during the call.

5. Post-call recap email → Created after the meeting using the transcript prompt to confirm decisions, next steps, and client action items.

No slide deck is required.

Paste the pre-read email in your ongoing google doc agenda and use it as your talking guide, share your screen from the google doc only. Keep the call conversational, focusing on results, insights, and collaboration.

Trusted Advisor Reminder:

You're not reporting data, you're connecting outcomes to strategy. Use each touchpoint to show progress, simplify decisions, and strengthen the relationship.

Google Meet Set up info:

Meeting Title: [Client Name]: WebServ SEO Bi-Weekly Check-In

Duration: 30 minutes

Frequency: Every four weeks

Meeting Owner: SEO Account Manager (AM)

Required Attendees

Role	Purpose in Meeting
Account Manager (AM)	Leads the call, presents updates, manages agenda and relationship.
Client POC / Marketing Contact	Main contact for collaboration, feedback, and visibility into deliverables.
(If applicable) Webserv PPC AM	Optional; joins if there's overlap on shared campaigns, landing pages, or cross-channel efforts.

Note: Associate Directors, and the director of SEO should not attend bi-weeklies unless the client is in a risk position. AMs own this meeting end-to-end.

Agenda Template for Google Meet

START TEMPLATE

Purpose:

To review recent SEO progress, share quick wins, and align on upcoming priorities that support your business goals.

1. Performance Pulse & Key Insights

- Quick overview of how organic traffic and lead pacing are trending.
- What's driving movement or why performance shifted.

2. Progress & Quick Wins

- Review key updates and deliverables from the past two weeks.
- Highlight what's working well and how it supports your larger objectives.
- Share what's coming next and any dependencies.

3. Partnership & Alignment

- Open discussion: feedback, lead quality, new initiatives, or observations.
- Confirm next steps, responsibilities, and upcoming deliverables.

END TEMPLATE

Goal: To strengthen client trust and momentum by connecting SEO progress to business outcomes, highlighting what's working, and aligning on next priorities — all through a simple, conversational check-in that reinforces partnership and forward motion.

How to prep for each bi-weekly

This checklist is designed to help you prepare efficiently for each bi-weekly SEO call.

Your goal is to walk into the meeting feeling confident, informed, and ready to lead a conversation, not a presentation.

Step 1: KPI Snapshot

- ☐ Open the Looker Studio SEO NSM: Organic Sessions Dashboard report and CallRail/CTM dashboard.
- ☐ Pull current Organic Sessions and VOBs (if available) for QTD
- ☐ Enter these into the shared SEO NSM Tracker google sheet — this auto-calculates pacing (On Track / Behind / Ahead).
- ☐ Add one line of context or insight:

"Organic sessions pacing slightly behind due to lower mid-funnel search volume post-October peak."

Trusted-advisor tip: Always connect the number to a reason or learning — never just report data.

Step 2: Deliverables + Quick Wins

Combine project tracking and quick-win storytelling in one pass.

- ☐ Review Asana or Airtable for progress this quarter
- ☐ For each core area, note both "what happened" and "why it matters."

Area	What We Did / Learned	What's Next
New & Updated content	Published 2 new pages ("Outpatient IOP," "Adderall Withdrawal") → early signs of ranking traction for Dallas queries.	Next: Update modality pages for local targeting.
Technical Maintenance	Fixed 404s + redirects live → improved crawl efficiency.	Next: Sitemap validation post-deploy.
CRO / UX	Tested new hero CTA → +18% CTR, leads trending up.	Next: Form UX updates on content hub template.
Local SEO / GBP	Posted 4 GBP updates, 2 Q&As, and received 3 new reviews.	Client to respond to reviews + continue Jumper campaign.

Step 3: Relationship & Alignment Pulse

This part of prep (and conversation) is about reading the room, emotionally and strategically.

The goal isn't to sell: it's to listen, align, and find opportunities where the client's needs intersect with what Webserv can deliver next.

Client Relationship Pulse Prompts

Use these to get a sense of satisfaction, stress, or shifting priorities.

If you hear friction, note it as a follow-up for the ASD or Director.

What to Listen For	What to prompt the client with	What It Might Indicate	What to do next
"I haven't had time to look at the reports" or "I just trust you guys"	How's everything been feeling on your side lately — are we making it easy for your team to stay in the loop?	Trust is high, but visibility is low — a risk long-term if leadership changes. Consider re-engaging them with higher-level wins.	Reinforce trust by sharing a concise, visual KPI summary in the next pre-read. Highlight one clear business win ("Here's what's driving results"). Flag for AD if this pattern continues so visibility can be addressed in the monthly.
Mentions of new offerings, rebrands, campaigns	Are there any new initiatives or services your leadership is focusing on this quarter?	Signals timing for expanding SEO scope or aligning with upcoming launches	Note all new initiatives in the account tracker. Identify needed landing pages, schema, or GBP updates. Flag for AD so the next monthly can include a proposal or sprint shift.
Concerns about lead type or drop-offs	Have there been any changes to lead	Opens the door to CRO/paid media support	Ask clarifying questions ("Are those leads coming

What to Listen For	What to prompt the client with	What It Might Indicate	What to do next
	quality or volume lately?		from organic or maps?”). Document details and share with PPC team if integrated. Flag to AD for cross-sell opportunity review in the next monthly.
Internal perception or politics	What’s been the feedback from your internal team on performance so far?	Helps you manage optics and tailor reporting	Capture verbatim quotes in notes. Adjust future reporting to emphasize what internal stakeholders care about most (e.g., lead quality, rankings, ROI). If negative, alert AD immediately.
Lags or wins in GBP engagement	How’s the review strategy going — any success getting more client reviews in?	Indicates client follow-through and local trust health	If lagging → remind client of GBP review steps; offer to resend templates. If strong → highlight in recap and next monthly deck as social-proof progress.
A. Mentions of new programs, locations, or services B. Mentions of funding, expansion, or partnership growth	Has anything changed internally — staffing, new programs, leadership goals — that we should stay aligned with?	A. Opportunity to expand SEO scope (new service pages, GBP listings, or paid campaigns). B. Signals timing for upsell conversations (integrated	A. Create quick list of new offerings and send to content/tech teams to scope. Flag to AD for expansion conversation in next monthly. B. Add note in client

What to Listen For	What to prompt the client with	What It Might Indicate	What to do next
C. Mentions of internal cutbacks, budget constraints, or slower admissions		campaigns, PPC activation, CRO). C. Signals risk — focus next meeting on ROI framing and retention; reinforce efficiency wins.	tracker → “Growth trigger.” Notify AD so they can frame integrated growth strategy during monthly. Prepare one data point (e.g., organic traffic scaling opportunity) for that call. C. Emphasize cost-efficiency and long-term value of SEO in recap email. Share with AD for potential retention efforts

Usage Tip for AMs:

After every bi-weekly call, scan the right-hand column and mark any “Flag for AD” items in your internal notes so the Associate Director can address them in the upcoming monthly.

Goal: Show you’re invested in their success beyond the deliverables.

CLIENT FACING GOOGLE DOC AGENDA

Prep this by copying and pasting your pre-read email straight into the sections of the doc. Use this to share in client calls instead of reading from the email.

Link to SEO Google doc Template for Bi-Weekly Calls

CLIENT PRE-CALL EMAIL TEMPLATE

Send this email 1 business day before the bi-weekly call to set context, highlight key progress, and prepare the client for a focused discussion.

Subject: SEO Progress & Next Steps – [Client Name]

Hi [Client Name],

Here's your SEO update ahead of our call. Overall, we're [on track / slightly behind / ahead] toward your organic sessions goal. [Add one-line insight about cause or learning.]

Highlights & Progress

NSM Progress towards goal %

Area	Progress & Learning	What's Next
Content	[Example: Two new blogs live; visibility improving for "Dallas IOP."]	[Example: Update treatment pages for local search.]
Technical	[Example: Redirects completed for old URLs, improving crawl paths.]	[Example: Sitemap validation next sprint.]
CRO	[Example: Homepage CTA test improved CTR by 18%.]	[Example: Implement on other top pages.]
Local SEO / GBP	[Example: 4 new GBP posts, 3 new reviews.]	[Example: Respond to new reviews; maintain 2 posts/week cadence.]

Let's use our call to confirm and align our priorities and discuss any observations or questions you have.

Thanks,
[Your Name]

Goal → Friendly, clear, confident — you're their SEO partner, not their vendor.

POST-CALL RECAP TEMPLATE

Send this within 24 hours after the bi-weekly call to confirm key takeaways, document next steps, and close the loop confidently.

Attachment: Download the PDF of the call agenda and send it along with the recap email

There's pre-built templates in Attention you can use to generate this automatically, or if you prefer use the transcript and this prompt in Claude to generate this:

Prompt:

I'm writing a client recap email for our bi-weekly SEO sync. Please review the transcript below and summarize the discussion into three concise sections using a friendly, confident "trusted advisor" tone:

Key Takeaways & Insights – Focus on what the client learned, confirmed, or reacted to during the call (not what was already sent in the pre-read).

Next Two Weeks: Priorities in Motion – List what we agreed to do next, with any dates or deliverables mentioned.

What We'll Need From the Client – Include specific follow-ups or information they promised to send or confirm.

If anything sounds uncertain or unconfirmed, label it as "To Be Clarified" so I can review before sending.

Keep the summary under 200 words, use bullet points, and remove filler or pleasantries.

Transcript: [paste meeting transcript here]

Output Example:

Subject: Follow-Up & Next Steps – [Client Name] SEO Sync ([Date])

Hi [Client Name],

Thanks again for taking the time to connect today — here's a quick summary of what we discussed and aligned on:

Key Takeaways & Insights

(Focus on what the client learned or clarified during the call — not what they already saw in the pre-read.)

- [Example: We confirmed content updates are driving stronger impressions for treatment pages — next phase is localizing those wins.]
 - [Example: CRO tests showing lift; plan to roll out across top traffic pages.]
-

Next Two Weeks: Priorities in Motion

(Highlight only what changed, was agreed upon, or needs attention.)

- [Example: Publish "Is Ritalin a Controlled Substance?" by 11/20.]
 - [Example: Validate sitemap updates post-deployment.]
 - [Example: Coordinate with PPC on retargeting campaign alignment.]
-

What We'll Need From You

(Clear action items, framed as partnership — not homework.)

- [Example: Review and reply to 3 new GBP reviews this week.]
 - [Example: Confirm hours or staff updates for GBP listing before 11/15.]
-

Next Steps:

We'll track these items in our progress sheet and check in during our next bi-weekly on [date].

Thanks again — really appreciate the collaboration and transparency today.

Best,

[YOUR NAME]

Trusted advisor tip: Use this email to reinforce confidence and clarity — summarize what matters most, confirm shared priorities, and make the client feel supported and understood after the call.

Internal Recap (For Client Slack Channel)

Purpose:

To document key takeaways, client sentiment, and immediate next steps from the bi-weekly SEO call — giving internal teams visibility into progress, blockers, and relationship signals without rewatching recordings.

Responsible: Account Manager (AM)

Due: When you send the client recap email

How to Generate the Internal Recap Using the Transcript

There's pre-built templates in Attention you can use to generate this automatically, or if you prefer use the transcript and this prompt in Claude to generate this:

I need an internal recap from the transcript of a Bi-Weekly SEO Check-In.

Please summarize it into a short internal post using the following structure and tone:

Context:

- This summary is for internal use across SEO, PPC, and leadership.
- Keep it clear, concise, and actionable – not client-facing.
- Focus on deliverable progress, blockers, and client relationship signals.

Internal Recap Format:

1 Key Progress / Wins:

- [2–3 quick deliverables or wins discussed – content published, fixes implemented, or trends improving.]

2 Roadblocks / Needs:

- [Summarize any internal or client dependencies slowing progress.]

3 Next Two Weeks Priorities:

- [List tactical next steps and owners (AM, content, tech, etc.)]

4 Client Sentiment / Relationship Pulse:

- [Briefly note tone of call – positive, neutral, or tense – and any comments signaling satisfaction, frustration, or cross-sell potential.]

Tone:

Professional and brief – like a quick sprint standup note for internal teams.

Transcript: [Paste transcript here]

Where to Post

Post the generated summary in the #[account-name] Slack channel.

Example Format for Posting:

 Bi-Weekly SEO Internal Recap – [Client Name] ([Date])

Key Progress / Wins:

- Published 2 treatment pages; both indexed and gaining impressions.
- GBP updates completed – +6 new reviews added.

Roadblocks / Needs:

- Waiting on updated program description from client.
- Dev queue delayed sitemap update.

Next Two Weeks Priorities:

- AM: Coordinate new content sprint and CRO review.
- Content: Draft 2 supporting blogs for detox cluster.

Client Sentiment:

Positive – Client was upbeat and appreciative; good opportunity to reinforce partnership and mention seasonal PPC sync next week.